TITLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

*Article 1General Conditions

1. These Staff Regulations shall apply to employees recruited under contract by the European Union Satellite Centre (hereinafter referred to as 'employees' and 'SATCEN' respectively), except where the Board has taken decisions to the contrary in respect of the Director and the Deputy Director.
2. The term 'employee' covers the following natural persons:
 - (a) staff members, who hold contracts with the SATCEN and occupy budget posts listed in the table of staff members annexed each year to the SATCEN's budget;
 - (b) local staff, who hold contracts with the SATCEN under the local national legislation.
3. Any reference in these Staff Regulations to a person of the male sex shall be deemed also to constitute a reference to a person of the female sex, and vice-versa, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.
4. The table of staff members annexed to the budget of the SATCEN shall indicate the number of posts in each category and grade.

Permanent posts are posts relating to activities of the SATCEN having a permanent nature. Temporary posts are posts attached to projects or activities of limited duration.

5. The Director of the SATCEN is authorised to make amendments of a technical nature to these Staff Regulations which do not amount to a modification of the fundamental principles laid down in these Staff Regulations, with the assent of the Board.
6. Detailed provisions for the implementation of these Staff Regulations shall, as necessary, be set out in Implementing Rules laid down by the Director, following consultation with the Staff Committee.

*Article 2Provisions applicable to all employees

1. Authority

Employees shall be subject to the authority of the Director and responsible to him for the performance of their duties, which they shall undertake to carry out as scrupulously and conscientiously as possible.

An employee shall be responsible to the Director through his superiors for the discharge of his duties. The responsibility of his subordinates shall not relieve him of any of his own responsibilities except in so far as any such subordinate may have been guilty of deliberate disobedience.

Where an employee, in his duties, considers that an order received is improper or is likely, if carried out, to cause serious trouble, he shall so inform his immediate superior, if necessary in writing. If his immediate superior confirms the order in writing, the employee shall carry it out, but may ask that it be referred to a higher authority. There shall be no obligation to carry out an order involving an act or omission falling within the provisions of penal law.

▼ B2. Declaration

On accepting engagement with the SATCEN each employee shall subscribe to the following declaration:

‘I solemnly undertake to exercise in all loyalty, discretion and conscience the functions entrusted to me as employee of the European Union Satellite Centre (SATCEN), and to discharge those functions with only the interests of the SATCEN in view. I further undertake not to seek or accept instructions in regard to the performance of my duties from any government or from any authority other than the SATCEN.’

3. Conduct and Confidentiality

Employees shall conduct themselves at all times in a manner compatible with their status as representatives of the SATCEN. They shall abstain from any action or activity that may in any way undermine the dignity of their position or the good name of the SATCEN.

Employees shall also conduct themselves with objectivity and impartiality, and shall avoid any conflict of interest, perception or appearance of conflict of interest, in the performance of their duties.

Employees shall observe complete discretion with regard to all matters relating to the activities of the SATCEN. Except in the discharge of their duties, they shall not disclose any unpublished information acquired by them in the course of their official business unless authorised to do so by the Director. This obligation shall continue after they have left the SATCEN.

4. Financial responsibility

An employee may be required to make good, in whole or in part, any damage suffered by the SATCEN as a result of wilful misconduct or gross negligence on his part in the course of or in connection with the performance of his duties, independently of any disciplinary proceeding.

5. Security

Employees shall, on engagement, acquaint themselves with the EU regulation on the security rules applied by the SATCEN, as laid down by Council Decision 2013/488/EU ⁽¹⁾. They shall sign a declaration whereby they acknowledge their disciplinary and financial responsibility in the event of non-compliance with that regulation.

- (a) All employees shall be required to have security clearance giving them access to classified information in the course of their duties. A request for such clearance will be addressed to the competent authorities by the SATCEN. Pending official clearance, temporary access to classified information may be granted by the Director in accordance with the EU Security rules in force.
- (b) In accordance with these Staff Regulations and the EU Security rules in force regarding the need to hold a security clearance, no appointment will be confirmed before the competent National Security Authority grants the security clearance.
- (c) Employees shall inform the Security Officer immediately in the event of the suspected loss or compromise of classified information.

6. Assistance and compensation

The SATCEN shall provide assistance to employees who, by reason of their current appointment or duties at the SATCEN, and through no fault of their own, are subject to threats, insults, defamation or attack. Compensation for any material damage sustained may be granted provided that:

- (a) the employee has not wilfully or through negligence provoked the damage in question;
- (b) no redress has otherwise been obtained;
- (c) employees make over to the SATCEN any claims they may have against a third party, in particular insurance companies.

All decisions in this matter that could involve action or payments by the SATCEN shall be taken by the Director, who shall have a discretionary power to assess the circumstances of the case and to decide what form the assistance should take and what compensation, if any, should be granted.

7. Proprietary rights

All rights, including title, copyright and patent rights, in any work carried out by an employee in the performance of his official duties, shall be vested in the SATCEN.

8. External activities

- (a) An employee shall not, without the permission of the Director, accept from any government or from any other source outside the SATCEN any honour, decoration, favour, gift or payment of any kind whatsoever, except for services rendered either before his appointment or during special leave for military or other national service and in respect of such service.
- (b) Employees shall abstain from any public action or statement or publication if such action, statement or publication is incompatible with the duties or obligations of an international civil servant or liable to involve the moral or material responsibility of the SATCEN.
- (c) An employee wishing to engage in an outside activity, whether paid or unpaid, or to carry out any assignment outside the SATCEN, shall first obtain the permission of the Director. Permission shall be refused only if the activity or assignment in question is such as to interfere with the performance of the employee's duties or is incompatible with the interests of the SATCEN.
- (d) An employee may not directly or indirectly hold such interests in a commercial firm as could, by their nature, compromise his independence in the discharge of his duties in the SATCEN.
- (e) If the spouse or the registered partner of an employee is in gainful employment, the employee shall inform the Director. Should the nature of the employment prove to be incompatible with that of the employee and if the employee is unable to give an undertaking that it will cease within a specified period, the Director shall, after consulting the Staff Committee, decide whether the employee shall continue in his post or be transferred to another post.

▼ B

9. Candidacy for public or political office
 - (a) Employees who for personal reasons wish to stand for public or political office shall notify the Director of that intention.
 - (b) Any employee who stands for public or political office shall be given unpaid leave starting on the date he declares that he is beginning his electoral campaign.
 - (c) If elected, the employee shall request termination of his contract. Such termination shall not carry any entitlement to loss of employment indemnity or fixed-term contract allowance.
 - (d) If he does not accept the public or political office, the employee shall be entitled to resume his appointment with the same salary and seniority from which he benefited at the time his unpaid leave began.
 - (e) Time spent on unpaid leave shall not count towards seniority.

TITLE II

STATUS OF STAFF MEMBERS*CHAPTER I*General provisions*Article 3Privileges and immunities

The privileges and immunities conferred on staff members are accorded in the interests of the SATCEN and not for their personal convenience. They must not be used to avoid private obligations, or as an excuse for failure to observe the laws or police regulations of the host State.

In any incident where those privileges and immunities are involved, the staff member concerned shall immediately report the incident to the Director. In the event of infringement of local legislation, the Director may decide to waive the privileges or immunities if he deems it necessary.

*CHAPTER II*Recruitment and duration of appointment*Article 4Recruitment

1. Offers of employment shall be made by the Director, except in respect of the post of Director. The SATCEN shall be responsible for publishing vacant posts.
2. When a post is vacant and cannot be filled internally, the vacancy notice shall be advertised stating the duties to be performed and the qualifications for the post.
3. Staff members shall be appointed by the Director on the basis of merit and through fair and transparent competition procedures.
4. Candidates must demonstrate a thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the institutions of the European Union and a satisfactory knowledge of another such language to the extent necessary for the performance of their duties.

▼ B

5. Recruitment of staff members shall be limited to nationals of the Member States of the European Union.
6. The staff members governed by these Staff Regulations shall be classified in accordance with the categories and grades of the Coordinated Organisations.
7. Staff members shall be recruited at the lowest step of the grade of the post for which they are selected. However, the Director may grant a higher step where that is justified.
8. The Director shall determine which posts are to be filled by internal examination procedure or by external competition procedure, and shall lay down the tests which candidates for such posts will be required to take. Examining or selection boards shall be chosen by the Director from among the staff members of the SATCEN, to which he may add an external examiner.
9. Candidates invited to the SATCEN for interview or examination shall be entitled to a flat-rate contribution towards their travel and accommodation costs.

*Article 5Age limit for employment

The age limit for employment is set at the end of the month in which the staff member reaches the age of 65.

For duly justified reasons of service, the Director may authorise extensions up to a maximum of twelve additional months.

*Article 6Medical examinations

1. Before being recruited, a staff member shall be examined by a medical doctor authorised by the SATCEN certifying that he is physically fit to perform his duties.
2. Staff members shall be required to undergo a medical examination each year.
3. A doctor authorised by the SATCEN shall provide expert advice to the Director on the unsuitability of any staff member to continue to occupy his post.
4. Where a negative medical opinion is given as a result of the medical examination provided for in paragraphs 1 and 3, the candidate or staff member may, within 20 days of being notified of this opinion by the SATCEN, request that his case be submitted for the opinion of a medical committee composed of three doctors, with one being chosen by the Director, one by the staff member and one by the two other doctors.
5. The medical committee shall hear the doctor responsible for the initial negative opinion. Where the medical committee confirms the negative conclusion of the medical examination provided for:
 - (a) in paragraph 1, the candidate shall pay 50 % of the fees and of the incidental costs;
 - (b) in paragraph 3, the SATCEN shall first attempt to reassign the staff member to another post suitable to his condition. If this is not possible, the SATCEN shall terminate his contract with six months' notice and the invalidity board shall be convened to establish his entitlement to invalidity pension under the conditions laid down in the Pension Schemes Rules of the SATCEN.

▼ B*Article 7Appointments

1. Duration

- (a) Staff members recruited to permanent posts shall be appointed for an initial period of four years. The contract shall state that, not later than by the end of the third year of their appointment, they will be informed either:
- (i) that their appointment will not be extended; or
 - (ii) that their appointment will be extended for an indefinite duration; or
 - (iii) that their appointment will be extended for a fixed period, which shall not exceed four years, if the Director considers it inappropriate to grant an indefinite appointment at that stage. Not later than one year before expiry of that extension, the staff member concerned shall be informed either that his appointment will not be extended, or that his appointment will be extended for an indefinite duration.
- (b) The contracts of staff members recruited in temporary posts shall not exceed four years. They may be renewed, for a maximum period of four years.
- (c) At the termination of the employment, the staff members are entitled to an indemnity for loss of employment or a fixed-term contract allowance calculated under the provisions of Annex I.

2. Probationary period

The first six months of initial contracts shall be a probationary period beginning on the date of entry into service, subject to the following:

- (a) where, during his probationary period a staff member is prevented, by sickness or accident, from performing his duties for one month or more, the director may extend his probationary period by the corresponding length of time; the total length of probationary period shall in no circumstances exceed 12 months;
- (b) at the end of the probationary period, a report shall be made on the ability of the staff member to perform the duties pertaining to his post and also on his conduct and efficiency in the service. That report shall be communicated to the staff member;
- (c) a staff member whose performance has not proved adequate to justify retention in his post shall be dismissed;
- (d) a report on the probationary staff member may be made at any time during the probationary period if his performance is obviously proving inadequate. The report shall be communicated to the person concerned;
- (e) on the basis of the report, the Director may decide to dismiss the staff member before the end of the probationary period by giving him one month's notice; the period of service may not, however, exceed the normal probationary period;
- (f) a staff member who is dismissed during the probationary period following a negative report shall not be entitled to compensation for fixed-term contract allowance.

▼ B

The probationary period shall form an integral part of the period of the initial contract. It shall count towards seniority and pension rights.

3. Termination of contracts

(a) The SATCEN may terminate or not renew contracts in the following cases:

- (i) as a result of the discontinuation of the budget post occupied by the staff member, or if the duties attached to the staff member's post are modified in such a way that he no longer possesses the necessary qualifications and experience for the post, and no adequate alternative post can be found for him in the SATCEN;
- (ii) because of the professional inadequacy of the staff member, duly recorded in two successive reports, as defined in Article 26;
- (iii) through physical unfitness of the staff member that has occurred while serving and which has been confirmed by the invalidity board pursuant to Article 6 paragraph 4;
- (iv) following the withdrawal from the Board of the Member State of which the staff member is a national;
- (v) following a transfer of the headquarters of the SATCEN, by a distance of over 100 kilometres, from the location where the staff member was engaged, and the refusal of the staff member to be transferred;
- (vi) following the withdrawal of security clearance from the staff member for reasons other than disciplinary ones;
- (vii) following any disciplinary procedures that have established a misdemeanour or responsibility of the staff member as defined in Chapter VII or which has resulted in the withdrawal of his security clearance.

In the cases mentioned under points (i) to (vi), contracts may be terminated or not extended with six months' notice, in the case mentioned under point (vii), with one month's notice.

(b) A staff member may terminate his contract with three months' notice for any personal reasons that he is not required to state.

4. Compensation for loss of employment and fixed-term Contract Allowance.

(a) For staff members holding an Indefinite Contract:

- Other than for disciplinary reasons, the termination of a contract by the SATCEN shall entail compensation under the conditions set out in Annex I.
- The termination of a contract by a staff member shall not entitle him to loss of employment indemnity.

(b) For staff members holding a fixed-term Contract:

- Other than for disciplinary reasons, the termination or non-renewal of a contract by the SATCEN shall entail compensation under the conditions set out in Annex I.
- The termination of a contract or the non-acceptance of the offer of renewal of a contract by a staff member shall not entitle him to a fixed-term Contract Allowance.

▼B

5. Reduced notice of termination

If the interests of the service so require, the period of notice set out in paragraph 3(a) may be reduced by the SATCEN; in that case, the staff member concerned shall be entitled to the payment of an additional sum representing the salary and allowances that he would have received if the actual date of expiry of his contract had coincided with the end of a six-month period of notice.

This paragraph shall not apply in the case of termination for disciplinary reasons.

*CHAPTER IIISalaries and allowancesArticle 8General Provisions

1. The remuneration paid to staff members of the SATCEN shall include basic salary, an expatriation allowance, and family and social allowances.

Contributions and deductions shall be made from those emoluments in respect of internal tax, pension and social welfare schemes.

2. Staff members' current accounts shall be credited with the amount due not later than the last working week of the month.

3. Staff members are required to inform the SATCEN without delay about any change of their personal circumstances, which may have financial consequences. Those changes shall be taken into account for the remuneration of the month following the notification of the changes to the SATCEN's Administration; changes shall not be made to remuneration already paid.

4. Claims against the SATCEN for payment of salary, indemnities, allowances, benefits or other sums resulting from the application of these Staff Regulations, shall lapse two years after the date on which the payment would have been due.

However, requests for allowances provided for in these Staff Regulations shall give rise to a retroactive payment of the corresponding sums backdated to no more than three months from the date the SATCEN received written notification of the facts determining entitlement to these payments, supported by appropriate documentation.

5. A request for payment in respect of a claim against the SATCEN submitted after the expiry of the limitation periods set out in paragraph 4 may be taken into consideration if the delay is due to exceptional circumstances.

The limitation shall be interrupted by a claim in writing submitted before the expiry of the period of limitation.

6. The right of the SATCEN to recover any payment made unduly shall lapse two years following the date on which the SATCEN becomes aware that the payment was undue.

There shall be no limitation if the information provided was inaccurate as a result of a lack of good faith or gross negligence.

7. If there are outstanding claims for undue payments against the employee, recovery shall be made by deductions from the monthly or other payments due to the person concerned, taking into account his social and financial situation.

▼B*Article 9Salary

1. Basic Salary

Net basic salary shall be the amount shown for the grade and step of a staff member in the scales approved each year by the Board.

2. Annual adjustments of basic salaries and allowances

(a) The basic salaries and allowances of the staff member shall be adjusted on 1 January according to the Coordinating Committee on Remuneration (CCR) recommendations issued for salary and allowances adjustment for the reference period.

(b) Adjustments shall apply to basic salaries and allowances in force on 31 December of the preceding year.

3. Affordability clause

(a) The SATCEN's Board reserves the right, if exceptional or unforeseen circumstances so warrant:

— to reduce the annual adjustment recommended by the CCR to the national consumer price index applicable and to phase in the adjustment amount or postpone it until later in the calendar year;

— to decide, on a finding by the Director that the SATCEN could not otherwise reasonably expect to meet its financial obligations and essential operating requirements, that the annual adjustment recommended by the CCR be awarded in part or not at all, and also to decide on the timing for the payment of any adjustment.

(b) Action under (a) shall be taken in accordance with the applicable general legal principles and after appropriate consultation with the SATCEN's Board, Director and Staff Committee.

(c) The Board of the SATCEN reserves the right to determine whether any catch-up, retroactive or competitiveness adjustments should be made.

*Article 10Expatriation allowance

An expatriation allowance shall be paid to a staff member who, at the time of his first appointment, was not a national of the State in whose territory his permanent place of duty is situated and who had not been continuously resident in that State's territory for three years or more immediately prior to his employment by the SATCEN.

That allowance shall cease to be payable if a staff member is transferred to the country of which he is a national.

The amount of the allowance shall be calculated in accordance with Annex II.

Where a staff member is appointed by the SATCEN immediately after having been employed in the country where he performs his duties by another international organisation or by his own country's administration, he will be entitled to expatriation allowance and his years of service with a previous employer shall be taken into account when calculating the amount allowance.

▼B*Article 11Family and social allowances

1. General rules

The allowances provided for under this Article and similar allowances to which a married couple, or an unmarried staff member, are entitled from another source, shall not be cumulative.

Any staff member, who is in receipt of, or whose spouse, dependant or registered partner is in receipt of, or entitled to, a national or international allowance similar to those provided for under this Article, from other sources, is to inform the SATCEN's Administration Division accordingly, in order that a corresponding reduction be made in the allowances granted to him by the SATCEN.

Any staff member who knowingly misinforms, or fails to inform, the SATCEN's Administration of a relevant fact and in consequence receives an allowance to which he is not entitled or an amount higher than that to which he is entitled, infringes this article and as a consequence, will be required to refund any amount so received and may also be liable to disciplinary measures.

Where entitlement to allowances commences after the date of entering the service, the Staff member shall receive them from the first day of the month in which such entitlement commences. On cessation of such entitlement, the staff member shall receive the sum due up to the last day of the month in which entitlement ceases.

The Administration of the SATCEN shall be entitled to request any official documents or supporting evidence that it deems necessary to establish a right to any allowance or to permit its calculation.

2. Household allowance

(a) A household allowance shall be granted and paid monthly to any staff member who:

- (i) is married;
- (ii) is widowed, divorced, legally separated or single and has at least one dependant within the meaning of Annex III to these Staff Regulations;
- (iii) is registered as a stable non-marital partner, provided that:

- the couple produce a legal document recognised as such from a competent authority of a Member State, acknowledging their status as non-marital partners;
- neither partner is in a marital relationship or in another non-marital relationship;
- the partners are not related in any of the following ways: parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, nephew, niece, son-in-law, daughter-in-law.

(b) That allowance shall be equal to 6 % of net basic salary and shall not be lower than the amount payable to staff members in grade B3, step 1.

(c) In the case of:

- (i) a married staff member who has no dependants but whose spouse is gainfully employed, or

▼ B

- (ii) a staff member who is registered as a stable non-marital partner, as defined in point (a) and who has no dependants, but whose partner is gainfully employed, the allowance shall be the difference between the net basic salary for grade B3, step 1 plus the allowance to which the staff member would be entitled in theory, and the earned income of the spouse or registered partner. If the latter amount is equal to or greater than the former, no allowance shall be payable.

The allowance shall not be paid to a staff member whose spouse or registered partner is a staff member of the SATCEN or a member of a Coordinated Organisation and who has a higher basic salary than the staff member.

3. Children's and other dependants' allowance

- (a) A children's and other dependants' allowance shall be granted and paid monthly to any staff member who mainly and continuously maintains children or other dependants as defined in Annex III.
- (b) The allowance shall be a fixed amount for each dependant, set each year in the scales approved by the Board.
- (c) Where both spouses and registered partners work for the SATCEN or a Coordinated Organisation, the allowance shall be paid to whichever of them is in receipt of a household allowance or equivalent.
- (d) The definitions and the conditions under which the allowance is granted are set out in Annex III.

4. Education allowance

- (a) An education allowance shall be granted and paid monthly to any staff member who is entitled to household allowance, and whose dependent child(ren), as defined in Annex III is/are at least three years old, and is/are in regular full-time attendance at kindergarten, primary, secondary or higher education.
- (b) The allowance shall be equal to twice the amount of the dependant child's allowance, and shall be payable for each child.
- (c) The staff member concerned shall provide to the SATCEN's Administration all supporting evidence at the beginning of each school year.

5. Disabled children's and other dependants' allowance

- (a) A disabled children's and other dependants' allowance shall be granted and paid monthly for disabled children or dependants to any staff member who is primarily and continuously responsible for their care. The child or dependant must fulfil the criteria and conditions set out in Annex III.
- (b) The details of allocation and payment of the allowance are given in Annex IV.

6. Rent allowance

- (a) A rent allowance shall be paid monthly to staff members of grades B, C, A1 and A2 who are tenants or sub-tenants of accommodation and who pay a rent — excluding service charges considered to be the liability of the tenant in the country of residence — that exceeds a specified proportion of their emoluments.

▼B

- (b) The method of calculating the allowance is set out in Annex V.
- (c) Staff members in receipt of rent allowance shall inform the Head of Administration immediately of any change in their circumstances that could affect their eligibility or the amount of the allowance.

7. Transport allowance

Since the duty station is remote from residential areas and the SATCEN is located in a military base which is not served by public transport, staff members who not live in the military base where the SATCEN is located shall receive a flat-rate monthly transport allowance. The amount of the allowance shall be set by the Director at the beginning of each calendar year.

*Article 12Extra duties allowance

1. A staff member may be called upon to occupy temporarily a post in a grade which is higher than his current grade. From the beginning of the second month of such temporary posting, he shall receive a differential allowance equal to the difference between the remuneration carried by his current grade and step, and the remuneration he would receive in respect of the step at which he would be classified if he were appointed to the grade of his temporary posting.

The duration of a temporary posting shall not exceed one year, except where, directly or indirectly, the posting is to replace a staff member who is seconded to another post, called up for military service or absent on prolonged sick leave.

2. An allowance for additional responsibility may be attached to certain posts on a case-by-case basis by the Director if the staff member has to assume responsibility for managing a team in which one or more staff members are of the same grade as his own. The maximum amount of such allowance shall be set by the Director at the beginning of each calendar year.

*Article 13Installation and resettlement allowance

1. Installation allowance

- (a) An installation allowance shall be paid to a staff member whose place of private residence was more than 100 kilometres from his duty station at the time he accepted employment with the SATCEN or when he is transferred to a new place of employment and is thereby obliged to change his place of residence.
- (b) In cases where a staff member, his spouse or registered partner are both entitled to the installation allowance, the allowance shall be payable only to the person whose basic salary is the higher.
- (c) The amount of the allowance shall be one month's basic salary.
- (d) An installation allowance shall be paid on production of documents establishing the fact that the staff member has settled at his new duty station.
- (e) Staff members shall be required to reimburse half the installation allowance if they resign within two years of their appointment.
- (f) The Director may authorise an exception to the provisions governing reimbursement where their strict application might cause special hardship.

▼ B

2. Resettlement allowance

- (a) A staff member who provides evidence of a change of his private residence of more than 100 kilometres from his duty station, shall be entitled on termination of service to a resettlement allowance equal to one month's basic salary, provided that he has completed four years of service and does not receive a similar allowance in his new employment.
- (b) In cases where a staff member, his spouse or registered partner are both entitled to the resettlement allowance, the allowance shall be payable only to the person whose basic salary is the higher.
- (c) A staff member who has completed more than two years' but less than four years' service shall receive a resettlement allowance proportionate to his length of service.
- (d) In the event of the death of the staff member, the resettlement allowance shall be paid to the surviving spouse, registered partner or, in the absence of such a person, to the dependants within the meaning of Annex III, even if the requirement as to length of service laid down in point (a) of this paragraph is not met.
- (e) The resettlement allowance shall be paid upon evidence that the staff member and his family, or, in the event of a deceased staff member, his family only, have resettled, within six months from the date of termination of his service/ death, at a place situated not less than 100 kilometres from the place where the staff member was employed.

*Article 14Deductions

1. Internal tax

Internal tax shall amount to 40 % of the basic salary in respect of a given grade and step. This sum shall be added to the net basic salary to give the gross salary. This sum shall be shown as a monthly deduction on pay slips.

2. Contributions to pension scheme

A monthly deduction as approved by the Coordinated Organisations for the pension scheme applied to staff members and corresponding to a percentage of net basic salary shall be made from staff members' emoluments and paid into the SATCEN's Pensions Reserve Fund.

3. Contributions to social welfare benefits

A monthly deduction in respect of social welfare benefits shall be made from staff members' emoluments. Minimum social welfare benefits shall cover medical care, incapacity/disability coverage and life insurance.

One third of the Contributions to the Social Welfare Scheme shall be borne by the staff member; the remaining two thirds shall be borne by the SATCEN.

The percentage shall be determined, at the beginning of the year for the following 12 months, by agreement between the SATCEN and the insurance company operating the scheme. The amount deducted shall be added to the employer's contribution.

4. Fixed-Term Contract Allowance Contribution

The SATCEN shall contribute for staff members holding a fixed-term contract in order to finance a fixed-term contract allowance.

▼B

This fixed-term contract contribution shall be set at 8,4 % of the net monthly remuneration of the staff member concerned.

The contribution shall be paid into a fund each month.

▼ B

8. In exceptional circumstances, decided at the discretion of the Director, some staff members may be required to work at weekends. In such cases, the hours worked shall give an entitlement to time off in lieu or to remuneration.

9. Overtime or night work by staff members in grades A4 or above shall carry no right to compensation or remuneration.

*Article 20Part-time work and teleworking

The procedure to be followed shall be set out in an internal memorandum signed by the Director.

▼ B

(c) Leave unexpended on departure of staff members

Leave unexpended at the time staff members depart from the SATCEN shall be cancelled. However, if the Director certifies in writing that, owing to the exigencies of work, it was impossible for a staff member to take all his leave, the staff member shall be entitled to a payment of one thirtieth of his monthly basic salary for each day of leave so accumulated.

2. Unpaid leave

(a) Upon request from a staff member, the Director may grant unpaid leave on personal grounds if this is compatible with the interest of the service.

(a) home leave shall amount to eight working days every two years, plus travelling time calculated on the basis of the fastest mode of transport;

(b) home leave may be taken six months before the end of the period to which it relates;

(c) if it is not taken within six months after the end of the period to which it relates, home leave shall be cancelled with respect to that two-year period. The date, on which home leave is actually taken, for any given two-year period, shall not affect the date on which the next home leave is to be taken;

- (d) where spouses, or registered partners, are both employed by the SATCEN and where both are entitled to home leave, it shall be granted in accordance with the following conditions:
- (i) where both have their home in the same country, each shall be entitled to home leave in that country every two years;

 - (c) the head of division must certify that he will in all probability not require the services of the staff member during the period of the requested home leave.

Failure to comply with point (a) will result in the staff member concerned being obliged to reimburse to the SATCEN all the payments received in connection with the home leave and may also result in the staff member's unexpended annual leave being reduced by the number of days of home leave granted. The Director may decide to derogate from the provisions in points (b) and (c) if he considers that their strict application would expose the staff member concerned to an injustice or to particular difficulties.

1. The work of all staff members, apart from the Director, in the previous year, shall be evaluated at the latest by 31 March of each year.

▼B

2. Reports shall concern the overall performance related to the post held by the staff member concerned and the values of the SATCEN (team spirit, commitment, excellence and proactivity). The entire evaluation shall be summarised on an annual report form kept in the staff member's personal file.

2. An adverse report may justify keeping the staff member at his present step for an additional year.

3. Two or more successive adverse reports may justify the termination or non-renewal of contracts.

4. If the additional intermediate report referred to in Article 24(3) does not show any improvement in the performance of the staff member, the Director may take one of the following measures:

- (a) keep the staff member at his present step for an additional period of 12 months;

The Director shall notify the person concerned of his reasoned decision within four months from the date on which the request was made. If, at the end of that period, no reply to the request has been received, this shall be deemed to constitute an implied decision rejecting it, against which a complaint may be lodged in accordance with the following paragraphs.
2. Any person to whom these Staff Regulations apply may submit to the Director a complaint against an act adversely affecting him, either where the Director has taken a decision or where he has failed to adopt a measure prescribed by these Staff Regulations. The complaint must be lodged within three months. That period shall start to run:
 - (a) on the date of publication of the act if it is a measure of a general nature;
 - (b) on the date of the notification of the decision to the person concerned, but in no case later than the date on which the latter received such notification, if the measure affects a specified person; if, however, an act affecting a specified person is such as to affect adversely another person, the period shall start to run in respect of that other person on the date on which he receives notification thereof but in no case later than the date of publication;
 - (c) on the date of expiry of the period prescribed for reply where the complaint concerns an implied decision rejecting a request as provided for in paragraph 1.
3. The Director shall notify the person concerned of his reasoned decision within four months from the date on which the complaint was lodged. If, at the end of that period, no reply to the complaint has been received, this shall be deemed to constitute an implied decision rejecting it, against which an appeal may be lodged under paragraph 5.

In the event of a negative reply, the staff member may request mediation. Such mediation is not mandatory.

4. The Director shall appoint a mediator for a renewable period of three years.

The mediator shall be a qualified, independent legal expert. He shall be provided by the Director and the staff member concerned with all documents he considers necessary for an examination of the case.

He shall submit his conclusions within two months of the date on which he has been apprised of the case.

Those conclusions shall not be binding on either the Director or the staff member.

The costs of mediation shall be borne by the SATCEN if the conclusions are refused by the Director; 50 % of the costs shall be borne by the staff member if it is he who refuses to accept the findings.

5. The Court of Justice of the European Union (the 'Court of Justice') shall have jurisdiction in any dispute between the SATCEN and any person to whom these Staff Regulations apply regarding the legality of an act affecting such person adversely within the meaning of paragraph 2.

In disputes of a financial character, the Court of Justice shall have unlimited jurisdiction.

Staff members may file an appeal before the Court of Justice, subject to the following:

- (a) an appeal to the Court of Justice shall lie only if:
 - (i) the Director has previously had a complaint submitted to him pursuant to paragraph 2 within the period prescribed therein, and

 - (ii) where the appeal is against an implied decision rejecting a complaint submitted pursuant to paragraph 2, on the date of expiry of the period prescribed for reply; however, where a complaint is rejected by express decision after being rejected by implied decision but before the period for lodging an appeal has expired, the period for lodging the appeal shall start to run afresh;
- (c) by way of derogation from point (b), the person concerned may, after submitting a complaint to the Director pursuant to paragraph 2, immediately file an appeal with the Court of Justice, provided that such appeal is accompanied by an application either for a stay of execution of the contested act or for the adoption of interim measures. The proceedings in the principal action before the Court of Justice shall then be suspended until such time as an express or implied decision rejecting the complaint is taken.

 - (c) when leaving the SATCEN, except that the reimbursement may be refused if the staff member resigns before having completed twelve months' service at the SATCEN.
2. Reimbursement covers expenses incurred for moving household effects, including packing and the cost of insurance against ordinary risks (breakage, theft, fire).

To claim expenses under this Section, staff members must submit at least two estimates for prior approval by the Head of Administration. The estimates must refer to the same weight (or volume), transported over the same distance.

The Head of Administration may, if he considers the estimates excessive, request estimates from other moving firms.

3. Staff members may only claim reimbursement under this Section if the expenditure in question is not reimbursable by a government or other authority.

*ANNEX VIIOFFICIAL DUTY EXPENSES

(Referred to in Articles 18 of the Staff Regulations)

Staff members travelling on official SATCEN duty shall be entitled to reimbursement of all of their travel costs and to a daily allowance to cover subsistence when away from their place of duty in accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of the Staff Regulations.

Section IMeans of transport*1. General rules

Travel by staff members on duty shall be performed by the most economic means available, subject to the derogations provided for in this Section.

Air and rail travel are considered to be the normal means of transport. The Director may, however, authorise staff members on official duty to use a private or official car, in particular when a doctor certifies that they cannot travel by air for medical reasons, and that travel by rail is not possible, too long or too expensive.

If a staff member travelling on official duty chooses, and is authorised, to travel by means other than the most economic available, the following rules shall apply:

- (a) he shall be entitled only to reimbursement of the cost of the journey by the most economic means of transport;
- (b) he shall be entitled to subsistence allowance only for the length of time he would have taken had his journey been made by the most economic means available;
- (c) working time taken by him in consequence of such travel in excess of the time which would have been taken had he travelled by the most economic means available will count against his annual leave entitlement.

2. Air travel

- (a) All air travel shall be in economy class or equivalent, except where authorised by the Director.
- (b) Staff members shall be entitled to business class or equivalent travel for journeys involving a flight of over four hours or a total time of travel of at least four hours involving two flights.

3. Rail Travel

- (a) Staff members of grades A and B shall be entitled to first class travel.
- (b) For journeys by rail involving night travel of a minimum duration of six hours, staff members shall be entitled to reimbursement of the costs of sleeping berths or sleeping compartments.

▼B

4. Road journeys — use of private cars

- (a) Staff members may be authorised to travel by private car in the interests of the SATCEN. In such cases, they shall be entitled to an allowance per kilometre calculated on the basis of the quickest usual route. The allowance shall be calculated on the basis of the rate applying in the country where the SATCEN is located, irrespective of the country or countries where the travel takes place. The rates in use shall be promulgated in an administrative memorandum. The total sum paid may not exceed the amount that the SATCEN would otherwise have had to disburse.
- (b) If the staff member concerned has been authorised to carry other members of the SATCEN, he shall be paid an additional allowance per kilometre equal to 10 % of the rate of the kilometric allowance for first passenger, and 8 % of the rate for the kilometric allowance, for each additional passenger. In such cases, passengers shall not be entitled to any reimbursement of travel costs. If the route followed involves special charges (such as tolls, or transport of the car by ship or car ferry), such charges shall be reimbursed on production of supporting vouchers, except for any costs of air travel.
- (c) Staff members using their own cars must show beforehand that they hold an insurance policy covering third party risks and risks to passengers in particular.
- (d) In the event of an accident, the SATCEN will not refund the cost of any damage to property.

Section II

Subsistence allowance for staff members travelling on official duty

1. Staff members travelling on official duty shall be entitled to subsistence allowance at the rates decided each year by the Board.

However, the Director may authorise:

- (a) special rates for countries where the cost of living is higher or lower than the normal rates;
- (b) the payment of subsistence allowance at a higher rate than that to which staff members would normally be entitled if this will facilitate the transaction of official business;
- (c) the payment of an allowance if sick leave has to be granted during the travel on official duty, except where the travel on official duty is being carried out in the place where the staff member lives.

2. Subsistence allowance shall be calculated as follows:

- (a) if the travel on official duty involves hotel accommodation the staff member concerned shall be paid the full daily allowance;
- (b) if the travel on official duty does not involve hotel accommodation:
 - (i) no subsistence allowance shall be payable for periods of less than four hours;
 - (ii) where the period of duty is between four and eight hours the staff members shall be entitled to 25 % of the daily allowance. For a period of more than eight hours but less than 24, the staff member shall be entitled to 50 % of the daily allowance;
- (c) official journeys carried out in the province of Madrid will not be entitled to reimbursement of a subsistence allowance. Duly authorised minor expenditure (car parking fees, kilometres, taxi, public transport costs etc.) will be paid upon receipt;

▼B

- (d) a notional period shall be added to the actual journey time for the purpose of calculating subsistence allowance to allow for travelling time to/from the main station or airport. This period shall be as follows:
 - (i) two hours will be added before the start of the train journey (real time of train departure) and another two hours will be added after the finish (real time of train arrival);
 - (ii) three hours before the start of the air travel (real time of flight departure) and another three hours will be added after the finish (real time of flight arrival);
 - (e) staff members who wish to add a weekend or a leave immediately preceding the travel on official duty will receive a subsistence allowance calculated from 15.00 hrs on the day prior to the travel on official duty;
 - (f) staff members who wish to add a weekend or a leave immediately following the travel on official duty will receive a subsistence allowance calculated until 22.00 hrs of the day on which the travel on official duty ends;
 - (g) in the case of overnight accommodation the allowance shall be reduced by 30 % if it is included in travel fares (night ferry, sleeping berth or compartment, by rail or air) and by 50 % if it is provided by an external body.
3. The allowance shall be deemed to cover all the expenses liable to be incurred by a staff member travelling on official duty, except the expenses listed below, for which additional reimbursement may be claimed:
- (a) visa fees and similar charges arising directly from travel on official duty;
 - (b) excess luggage charges authorised expressly by the Director;
 - (c) duly justified communication charges (internet, postal, telegraphic, long-distance telephone charges, etc.) incurred for official purposes;
 - (d) hospitality expenses incurred by staff members in conformity with conditions laid down by the Director;
 - (e) taxi fares, provided the Director has given his prior approval and evidence of the expenditure is produced.

If in certain circumstances the expenditure on accommodation exceeds 60 % of the daily subsistence allowance, the SATCEN may reimburse the excess amount partially or totally on presentation of vouchers and sufficient proof that additional expenditure was unavoidable. This reimbursement may not exceed 30 % of the daily subsistence allowance.

 - (b) Absences occasioned by sickness or accident that last no more than three days and for which no medical certificate is provided may, if they exceed nine working days in any one calendar year, entail a corresponding reduction in the annual leave due to the staff member concerned or a corresponding reduction in his emoluments if he has already taken his annual leave in full.

If an infectious disease is reported among the family or intimate friends of a staff member, the latter must immediately inform the Head of Administration and conform to such health precautions as may be prescribed by that officer. All staff members who have been in contact with a person who has contracted an infectious disease and are as a result obliged to absent themselves from duty shall be entitled to all of their emoluments; such absence shall not be deducted from either their sick leave or annual leave entitlements.
 - (b) Staff members shall submit to any preventive vaccinations or inoculations that may be required.
 - (c) All accidents to staff members, whether incurred at work or outside the SATCEN, however trifling they may appear at the time, must be reported immediately by the staff member to the Head of Administration, together with the names and addresses of any witnesses.

In the case of multiple adoptions or the adoption of a disabled child, the duration of the maternity leave shall be of 20 weeks.

- (f) Paternity leave of ten working days with full emoluments shall be granted to male staff members on the birth or adoption of a child who is recognised as dependent (as defined in point 3 of Article 11) and, in a case of adoption, who is under 18 years of age. It shall be increased to twelve working days in the case of a multiple birth or on the birth of a disabled child.

The leave shall commence from the date of birth of the child or the arrival of the child in the child's new home, but may be postponed if the child is hospitalised.

- (g) A staff member shall be entitled to up to two months of parental leave without basic salary for every child, to be taken during the first 12 months after the birth or adoption of the child. During parental leave, the staff member's membership of the social security scheme shall continue; the acquisition of pension rights, dependent child allowance, education allowance and disabled dependant allowance shall be maintained. The staff member shall retain his post, and continue to be entitled to advancement to a higher step or promotion in grade.

During parental leave, the staff member shall be entitled to an allowance of EUR 800 per month, but shall not engage in any other gainful employment.

The full contribution to the social security scheme shall be borne by the SATCEN. The staff member shall continue to pay his personal contribution to the Pension Scheme, and shall be entitled to the relevant benefits.

1. Whenever an Administrative investigation reveals the possibility of the personal involvement of a staff member, or a former staff member, that person shall rapidly be informed, provided doing so is not harmful to the investigation.
2. In cases that demand absolute secrecy for the purposes of the investigation and requiring the use of investigative procedures falling within the remit of a national judicial authority, compliance with the obligation to invite the staff member to comment may, in agreement with the Director, be deferred.

In cases of absolute secrecy, no disciplinary proceedings may be opened before the staff member has been given a chance to comment.
3. If, following an Administrative investigation, no case can be made against a staff member about whom allegations have been made, the investigation in question shall be closed, with no further action taken, by decision of the Director, who shall inform the staff member in writing. The staff member may request that this decision be inserted in his personal file.
4. In any event, conclusions referring by name to a staff member may not be drawn once the investigation has been completed without that staff member having been given the opportunity to comment on facts concerning him. The conclusions shall make reference to these comments.

Article 2

The Director shall inform the person concerned when the investigation ends, and shall communicate to him the conclusions of the Administrative investigation report.

On the basis of the investigation report, after having notified the staff member concerned of all evidence in the files and after hearing the staff member concerned, the Director may:

- (a) decide that no case can be made against the staff member, in which case he shall be informed accordingly in writing; or
- (b) decide, even if there is or appears to have been a failure to comply with obligations, that no disciplinary measure shall be taken and, if appropriate, address a warning to the staff member; or

The staff member's income may not, however, be less than the minimum subsistence figure corresponding to the basic salary of a staff member at post C1/1, with the addition of any family allowances payable.
3. A single instance of misconduct shall not give rise to more than one disciplinary penalty.

Article 8

The severity of the disciplinary penalties imposed shall be commensurate with the seriousness of the misconduct. To determine the seriousness of the misconduct and to decide upon the disciplinary penalty to be imposed, account shall be taken in particular of:

Section 5

2. The report shall be communicated to the staff member concerned and to the chairman of the Disciplinary Board, who shall bring it to the attention of the members of the Disciplinary Board.

Article 11

2. The staff member concerned shall have not less than one month from the date of receipt of the report initiating the disciplinary proceedings to prepare a defence.
3. The staff member may be assisted by a person of his choice.

Article 12

If, in the presence of the Chairman of the Disciplinary Board, the staff member concerned acknowledges misconduct on his part and accepts unreservedly the report referred to in Article 10 of this Annex, the Director may, in accordance with the principle of proportionality between the nature of the misconduct and the penalty being considered, withdraw the case from the Disciplinary Board.

Where a case is withdrawn from the Disciplinary Board the Chairman shall deliver an opinion on the penalty considered. Under this procedure the Director may, by derogation from Article 9 of this Annex, impose one of the penalties provided for in Article 7(1)(a) to (d) of this Annex.

Article 13

3. The SATCEN shall be represented before the Disciplinary Board by a staff member mandated by the Director to this effect.

Article 15

After consideration of documents submitted and having regard to any statement made orally or in writing, the Disciplinary Board shall, by majority vote, deliver a reasoned opinion as to whether the facts complained of are established and as to any penalty to which those facts should give rise. This opinion shall be signed by all the members of the Board. The Disciplinary Board shall transmit the opinion to the Director and to the staff member concerned within two months of the date of receipt of the report of the Director, provided that this time limit is commensurate with the degree of complexity of the case.

Article 16

1. Expenses incurred on the initiative of a staff member concerned in the course of disciplinary proceedings, and in particular fees paid to a person chosen to assist the staff member or for his defence, shall be borne by the staff member where the disciplinary proceedings result in the imposition of one of the penalties provided for in Article 7 of this Annex.
2. However, the Director may decide otherwise in exceptional cases where the burden on the staff member concerned would be unfair.

Article 17

1. After hearing the staff member, the Director shall take his decision as provided for in Articles 8 and 9 of this Annex within two months of receipt of the opinion of the Disciplinary Board. Reasons must be given for the decision.
2. If the Director decides to close the case without imposing any disciplinary penalty, he shall so inform the staff member concerned in writing without delay. The staff member concerned may request that the decision be inserted in his personal file.

Article 19

1. The decision suspending a staff member shall state whether the staff member is to continue to receive his full remuneration during the period of suspension or what part thereof is to be withheld. The amount paid to the staff member shall not under any circumstances be less than the minimum subsistence figure corresponding to the basic salary of a staff member at grade C 1, step 1 with the addition of any family allowances payable.

2. The situation of a suspended staff member must be definitively settled within six months of the date on which the suspension takes effect. If no such decision is taken within six months, the staff member concerned shall be entitled to again receive full remuneration, subject to paragraph 3.

3. Remuneration may continue to be withheld in part after the six-month deadline referred to in paragraph 2 if the staff member concerned is the subject of criminal proceedings for the same acts and is in custody as a result of those proceedings. In such cases the staff member shall not receive full remuneration until the competent court has ordered his release.

4. Sums withheld under paragraph 1 shall be repaid to the staff member if the final decision imposes a disciplinary penalty no more severe than a written warning, reprimand or deferment of advancement to a higher step, or if no disciplinary penalty is imposed; in the latter case, the repayment shall be made with compound interest at the rate of 3,5 % per year.

Section 7Parallel criminal prosecutionArticle 20*

Where the staff member is prosecuted in respect of acts also giving rise to disciplinary proceedings under this Annex, a final decision in the disciplinary proceedings shall be taken only after a final judgment has been handed down by the court hearing the case.

Section 8Final provisionsArticle 21*

A staff member against whom a disciplinary penalty other than removal from post has been ordered may, after three years in the case of a written warning or reprimand or after six years in the case of any other penalty, submit a request for the deletion from his personal file of all reference to such measure. Article 24

The Director may adopt implementing rules for these procedures.
